THE WITCH'S HAT TOWER

The "Witch's Hat" water tower is in Prospect Park, (known as Tower Hill park), the highest natural land area in the city of Minneapolis.

The 110-foot Prospect Park Water Tower was built in 1913 with a holding capacity of 150,000 gallons. It was also built to be a bandstand; however, there was only one concert in the band shell because the musicians experienced difficulty in carrying their instruments up the inside spiral staircase of 101+16 steps. Up until Minneapolis Wi-Fi was deployed in 2010, it housed active city first-responder telecommunications equipment in the roof.

The Prospect Park Water Tower is located at 55 Malcom Avenue S.E. in Minneapolis.

ABOUT PROSPECT PARK ASSOCIATION (PPA)

Founded in 1901, PPA is the oldest neighborhood association in Minneapolis and is the City-recognized voice of Prospect Park Neighborhood. PPA's mission is to promote, in a non-partisan, educational and cooperative manner, the health, safety and general welfare of the neighborhood and to promote the maintenance and improvement of the aesthetic, residential and physical qualities of the neighborhood environment.

PPA relies on volunteers along with our part-time staff person, to work with City & County governments, nonprofit organizations & community members to help shape our neighborhood. You can help: participate in monthly in board/community meetings or Environment; Transportations and Safety; Community Building; and Land Use and Planning committee meetings. Meetings are currently virtual. To participate or learn more, subscribe to PPA's newsletter here.

PPA ACTIVITIES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Recent selected accomplishments include installing rain gardens to mitigate the increase of stormwater runoff due to climate change, '25 by 25' initiative to reduce greenhouse gasses, installing traffic calming planters at Pratt school, Census 2020 work to reach under-counted communities, work with the City to reopen walkway from Pratt to Luxton park, formed Renter Rights Subcommittee, created Prospect Park Unified Design Standards, and held the annual Earth Day Cleanup, "Heal the Earth" Eco Tour, and neighborhood yard and tailgate sales.

ANNUAL NEIGHBORHOOD MEETING & BOARD ELECTION

This is the day when the PPA members elect half of the Board of Directors every year. PPA board member elections are held in May in order to take advantage of the city-wide neighborhood organization election made available by Neighborhood Community Relations (NCR). Participating in the city-wide election date brings greater attention to our neighborhood board election, giving more neighbors the opportunity to participate as candidates and voters. See the PPA Board of Directors page for candidate details here.
