

Jackson Project Committee
Minutes, October 3, 2024

Attending: Jerry Stein, Lynn Von Korff, David Frank, Susan Larson-Fleming

Majority of meeting was a discussion of the NCR Equity Engagement document. Contract has been extended to 3 years. Money available to pay for plaque at site of Jackson house and for labeling for portrait of the Jackson family, to be installed at Pratt School.

Potential project partners were discussed. Surly's foundation, "Surly Gives a Damn," may be contacted. Mary Sellke is the executive director.

It was moved that the Equitable engagement document be approved. Motion carried.

Pratt playground update: equipment replacement should happen in late October or early November.

Jerry is working on developing an adult education component dealing with Roger Wilkins, son of Helen Jackson Wilkins Claytor.

Next meeting: November 7.
