Prospect Park is for Lovers

Hey Neighbors,

February holds a lot of events in Prospect Park. From festivals at Luxton Park to concerts at the United Methodist Church, there is certainly no scarcity of things to do in the neighborhood! As always, it is great to meet new neighbors and volunteers at PPA sponsored events.

One of the best ways to volunteer is on the PPA Board of Directors. Elections are on Monday, April 25th. The Board ensures that PPA is doing what is best for the neighborhood by bringing their opinions and thoughts as well their neighbors'. It is really rewarding, especially when a project comes to fruition. To run for the PPA Board email the Chair of this year's Nominating Committee, John Orrison. He can tell you more about the importance of serving as a Board member.

Have a great month,

Jessica

Bylaws Listening Sessions

PPA has a set of draft bylaws it would like your feedback on! The Bylaws Task Force has been working hard to update the bylaws to reflect the organization's values, and would like neighborhood feedback on the document. You can voice your opinion and thoughts on the document at a listening session on either Monday, February 1st from 6:30-7:30pm or Saturday, February 6 from 10:30-11:30am. Both sessions will be held at the PPA office, 2828 University Avenue SE in Suite 200. Free parking is available on the east side of the building. You can read the draft bylaws here.
